

Holy Communion

In the Holy Communion we acknowledge God's gift of forgiveness and strength. Since God says, "Let a man examine himself and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup," each communicant is urged to take to heart the following statements:

1. I repent of all my sins.
2. I trust the atoning sacrifice of Jesus for forgiveness and eternal life.
3. I recognize that I receive Christ's true body and blood with the bread and wine.
4. I resolve to dedicate my life to Jesus Christ by regular Christian worship, witness and service.

Visitors who believe in and subscribe to the above statements are invited to commune with us. Others are requested to speak to Pastor or an usher before communing. Those not receiving the sacrament, including small children, are encouraged to come to the altar and receive a special blessing.

We thank you for worshiping with us today. If we can be of service to you or to someone you know, please contact the Pastor or one of our ushers following the service, or at your convenience call our office at 755-3256. We're anxious to speak with you!
